

Submitted photos

GARDEN CITY

Students enjoy fishing outing

Twenty-two special needs students from Georgetown High School enjoyed a fun day provided by Toomey's Kids Inc., a nonprofit charitable organization working with special needs students in the Grand Strand area. Desean Brown (pictured above) and John Brandon Cribb were two of the students who spent two hours fishing at the Garden City Pier.

